MEMO ENDORSED

Re: Atwa v. Quarantillo,
08 Civ. 3732 (RJS)

Dear Judge Sullivan:

I write respectfully to request a nunc pro tunc thirty-day extension of time, from June 23, 2008 to July 23, 2008 to respond to the complaint in the above-referenced civil action. This is the Government's first request for an extension.

This is a complaint in which plaintiff challenges the delay by United States Citizenship and Immigration Services ("CIS") in adjudication of his naturalization application within 120 days of examination. After the complaint was filed, this Office was informed by CIS that it has received the results of plaintiff's background check and is in the process of completing the adjudication of his application. Accordingly, we request a thirty-day extension of time to provide CIS additional time to adjudicate plaintiff's naturalization application, which would render this case moot. I apologize for the delay in seeking this extension and regret any inconvenience to the Court. Plaintiff's counsel, Eileen Collin Bretz, consents to this request for an extension of time.
